Memo/Reply From
JOSHUA LEDERBERG

TO: Julian Hoffman

BW/Intelligence: W.W. 2

Dear Julian

If you have not already seen this (or helped receive it!) you will surely find these extracts fascinating.

I am still working on getting some of the archival material out.

(Please see my marginal notes)

Unbeguiling our overestimate of German BW efforts was one of the major intelligence failures of WW2.

Yours,
